

GREATER PORTLAND LANDMARKS

2010 MAINE

RESTORATION DIRECTORY

THE 2010 MAINE RESTORATION DIRECTORY will be a juried consultants directory provided by Greater Portland Landmarks as a free service to all individuals, organizations, municipalities, property owners, and potential clients seeking the professional assistance of consultants with expertise in historic preservation. This directory will be inserted in the 2010 Spring issue of the Landmarks Observer and include articles on energy efficiency in historic buildings, tax credits, how-to's and much more. Additionally, the directory will be sorted both alphabetically and by trade specialty and downloadable from our website: www.portlandlandmarks.org

Build your reputation as a high quality provider of preservation products and services.

Introduce your unique restoration services to future prospects, current clients, and other high-quality tradespeople.

Educate the public and support the preservation community.

Maximize marketing opportunities

The Landmarks Observer/Spring Resource Guide issue will include the 2010 Maine Restoration Directory and will be distributed to thousands of potential customers. 8,000 copies are distributed to interested parties throughout Maine, and to over 55 sites in the Greater Portland area. The 2010 Maine Restoration Directory will be mailed to all Greater Portland Landmarks members, preservation organizations, and anyone inquiring about preservation tradespeople, services, and products; and be downloadable from our website: www.portlandlandmarks.org

Discounted year-round advertising

As a Restoration Directory listee, you have the unique opportunity to purchase discounted advertising in the Landmarks Observer, our quarterly newspaper, not only for the Spring Resource Guide but also for the entire year. Reach your target audience and utilize your advertising dollars wisely. Please see the 2010 Landmarks Observer advertising rates sheet at www.portlandlandmarks.org.
