

GREATER PORTLAND LANDMARKS
LEGACY BUSINESS AWARD

PRESENTED TO SPRINGER'S JEWELERS

This award honors extraordinary local businesses that have shaped greater Portland's character, culture, and architectural heritage over the last century. Established in 1870 by George T. Springer in Saccarappa (Westbrook), family-owned Springer's Jewelers is Maine's oldest operating jewelry store and one of the oldest fine jewelers in the country.

Nate Stevens
President

December 3, 2020

Sarah Hansen
Executive Director